Prepare for the Lord

- John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey. And this is what he proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me."

Another Letter From Honduras

Dearly beloved brothers and sisters of St. Monica Parish,

We, members of the Pastoral Council of St. James the Apostle, at our regular meeting, wanted to let you know we are thinking of you with much affection and admiration. We hope that the blessings of the Lord will continue to accompany you in your personal, family and pastoral lives.

In the name of our Parish we thank you for making us part of your life. Thanks for always being with us and for taking the time to visit us year after year. We are grateful for your great missionary efforts, for speaking to us of Jesus through your words and your actions.

Thank you for your solidarity with us, for your attention on behalf of our students and for your sensitivity towards those who are sick. Thank you for the medicines that you generously provide to help us attain physical health, but especially thank you for your constant prayers and for your always cheerful spirit on our behalf.

Additionally, on behalf of the parish, we would like to apologize for not knowing how to meet your needs as you deserve. The only thing that we wish is to express to you that we love you and that we always feel united through our simple but constant prayers for you. We would like to remind you of what you already know: YOU ARE A TRUE GIFT FROM GOD TO US and we always look forward to your visits.

Infinite thanks: Pastoral Council of St. James the Apostle

A Reflection for the Second Sunday of Advent

Imagine your whole city being deported after being defeated. Every person of any means is packed up with whatever few possessions they can gather and are transported away. Only a few of the very elderly, the very poor, or the very simple are left behind. This was the experience of the population of Jerusalem in 587 BC after the city was defeated in battle by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. The inhabitants of Jerusalem were carried off in captivity to the area south of Baghdad in what is now modern-day Iraq. Such is always the way of conquerors, who treat the human population as the spoils of war.

It is in this context that the prophecies of the second part of the Book of Isaiah are written (chapters 40-55). These are words of consolation to a people in exile. Today's first reading begins second Isaiah with the words, "Give comfort to my people." The well-known words about valleys being filled in and mountains made low reflect the arduous trek across the desert that the captives endured at the hands of the Babylonian army. A highway in the desert would have been a blessing!

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. used this same prophecy from Isaiah in his "I Have a Dream" speech at the Lincoln Memorial in 1963. Through Isaiah's words, he expressed the hope of generations of African-Americans for the fulfillment of equality in their own land.

As giant highway projects show, we have the capacity to level mountains and fill in valleys. Building a highway in the desert was accomplished by US Army engineers early in the war in Iraq.

But the real construction of a human society rooted in God's love still needs to go on. There is much inequality that we need to address. Isaiah continually reminded the people of Israel that it would be God who acted, but that humankind must cooperate with God's grace. That challenge remains the same for us today!

Helping The Lord's Pantry

The Lord's Pantry depends on the non-perishable foods we bring in each week and put in the blue food bin in the Narthex. The Pantry services around 100 clients each week, every Tuesday morning from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM at the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, 5136 N. Michigan Road. We need your help every week! If every family brought just one item with them when they come to Sunday Mass (or Friday Mass for the school), we could substantially help even more of the hungry in our own neighborhood.

We can also use any monetary donations you would like to make to cover the cost of the fresh produce. Checks can be made out to "The Lord's Pantry" and sent to: The Lord's Pantry, PO Box 17104, Indianapolis, IN 46217.

Unfortunately, we cannot use clothing or diapers; please donate those to the St. Vincent de Paul Society or the Gabriel Project. Thank you so much for all of your generous giving, and please join us on Tuesdays mornings to help distribute the food! Peace, the Lord's Pantry Team. For more information, please contact Dyan Huey, 297-9798.
